PoV video

Point of View (POV) is a shooting technique that shows the perspective of a scene literally from a character or objects position in the setting. That's just a technical way of saying that it enables you to experience a scene first hand, by putting you in someone else's shoes. Jul 22, 2011

Editing YouTube videos

The screenshot shows the YouTube Studio interface for editing a video. The video title is "HRHS - Justifying an absence". The interface is divided into three tabs: "BASIC", "ADVANCED", and "THUMBNAIL". The "BASIC" tab is selected and highlighted with a red box. On the left side, there is a sidebar menu with several options: "Video", "Details", "Analytics", "Editor", "Comments", "Transcriptions", "Other features", "Settings", "What's new", "Send feedback", and "Create South Classic". The "Details" option is highlighted with a red box. The main editing area is divided into two columns. The left column contains the "Title" field (with the text "HRHS - Justifying an absence"), the "Description" field (with the text "HRHS - Justifying an absence"), and the "Tags" field (with the text "Educational"). The right column contains the "Visibility" field (with the text "Public") and the "Playlist" field (with the text "Select"). At the top right of the editing area, there are buttons for "UNDO CHANGES" and "SAVE".

#Observeme goals for James Burn

Why this form? One of the best ways to improve our practice is to have colleagues observe one another and provide suggestions for improvements.

I welcome others' constructive feedback and want to practice giving it as well. Without it we aren't able to adjust our practice and improve!

Note: The feedback gathered from this form is anonymous.
